

How to get help

During the Covid 19 Emergency

Rock Parish Council is concerned about the vulnerable in our Parish who may struggle during the current emergency. The purpose of this leaflet is to inform each residence in our Parish as to where and how to find help. You should try these sources of help. If you are struggling to get that help then the Parish has a fall-back contact system which you can use. The Parish will then pass your details onto one of the support organisations that are being established at this time.

Worcestershire County Council (WCC) - WCC has the primary responsibility for social care. If you are in one of the vulnerable groups and need help then you should contact WCC.

If you know vulnerable people near you, pass them this leaflet. Please turn over for more information.

HOME DELIVERIES FOR PRESCRIPTIONS...

Rock Parish Councillor Chris Price tells us Healthpoint a Pharmacy in Load Street, Bewdley do home deliveries. They are very happy to deliver to patients in Far Forest and other areas of Rock Parish who use the GP Surgery in Cleobury Mortimer.

If the Patient informs their GP and ask them to send the Prescription to Health Point in Bewdley to be dispensed. The individual must contact HealthPoint Pharmacy on 01299 403034 and request a delivery.
